

The Healthcare Training Academy Presents: CCRN & PCCN Review Course

This review course is ideal for any nurse (or student) wanting to learn more about adult critical care or adult progressive care nursing; if you're a seasoned nurse, new to nursing practice, or if you're studying for the CCRN or PCCN certification exam. This course is a comprehensive review which follows the American Association of Critical care Nurses' (AACN) examination blueprint. (This course is a great foundation for students & recent graduates entering the nursing workforce).
